MIT ANNUAL FUND - DONOR RECOGNITION

Each year, MIT alumni, parents, students, and friends make thousands of gifts to MIT affecting every facet of Institute life. The MIT Annual Fund is the collective tally of these gifts throughout the fiscal year.

Individual donors to MIT will appear in the Annual Fund's yearly participation rosters at <https://giving.mit.edu/recognition/>. Donors qualifying for one or both of MIT's annual giving societies may also appear in a paper annual report (William Barton Rogers Society) and online member listings (1861 Circle)

1861 Circle

A loyalty society honoring MIT alumni, parents, and friends who give faithfully to MIT year in and year out. Members have gifts in each of the 5 fiscal years up to and including the current fiscal year. Learn more at <http://giving.mit.edu/1861circle/>.

William Barton Rogers Society

A fellowship of the Institute's annual leadership donors. Members are recognized at 6 annual giving levels starting at $1,000 ($500 for alumni 5 - 9 years out; $250 for alumni 1 - 4 years out). Learn more at <http://giving.mit.edu/wbrs/>.
